

PEREGRINA BEER

GENERAL IMPRESSION

Peregrina is a lager beer without strong flavors, well balanced and with medium carbonation.

AROMA

A malt and grain aroma with little aromatic presence of hops is identified. Presents a clean profile.

APPEARANCE

Color between straw and gold. Clean and well filtered practically without sediments. Correct white foam with medium retention.

FLAVOUR

It presents a medium-low level of maltosity with presence of grain with a fresh and dry finish. Low hops bitterness, being well balanced. Its all malt gives it a pleasant neutral aftertaste.

MOUTHFEEL

This is light bodied beer with medium carbonation, leaving no carbonic bite on tongue and palate.

INGREDIENTS

Peregrina is a beer made with 100% barley malt, hops, water and yeast. It has no additives, no preservatives, no flavouring and is based on the four basic ingredients of beer, which gives it a character of purity.
